

“UNNATURAL” MATERIALS FOR COATINGS IN THE RESTAURATION PROJECTS.

MARSILI GIOVANNI*, ANGGY GUTIERREZ*, UMBERTO DAINESE*
*R&D San Marco Group SpA

Abstract: In restauration projects - aim to recover original aspect and composition of walls and façades - frequently are provided “natural” coating, masking their real “unnatural” form. This article intends to unveil the real nature of renders and plasters based on lime found in the markets, and to show the best class of products in terms of composition and performances.